Objective

The purpose of this interactive seminar is twofold: first, to introduce participants to the law and practice of cross-border civil procedures, and second, to improve their English-language skills.

Participants will be encouraged to solve practical case studies on the subject matter, while they will also receive the tools and develop the ability to communicate effectively in English in cross-border situations.

Who should attend?

Court staff and bailiffs from EU Member States who need to apply EU law procedures to fulfil judicial or procedural functions. Participation is only possible upon nomination by the project partners.

About the Project

The seminar is part of a large-scale project co-funded by the European Commission entitled “Training court staff and bailiffs in European cross-border civil and criminal law procedures”. The project brings together 18 organisations from different countries that will tackle the deficiencies of court staff and bailiffs’ training by adopting a modern and practical approach to EU judicial training. 10 language training events and 11 pan-European legal seminars will be offered in face-to-face, hybrid and online formats.

EUROPEAN CROSS-BORDER CIVIL PROCEDURES

Trier, 12-14 June 2024 / Event no.: 124DT14

Terms and conditions of participation

Selection

1. Participation is on selection and free of charge. The number of places available is limited (24 places). Participants should have a working knowledge of English.
2. Interested court staff may register via their respective national training institutions. Interested bailiffs may register via UEHJ. Applications should be submitted before 12 April 2024. A response will be sent to every applicant after this deadline. We advise you not to book any travel or hotel before you receive our confirmation.

Travel and Accommodation

3. Participants will receive a fixed contribution towards their travel and accommodation expenses and are asked to book their own travel and accommodation. The condition for payment of this contribution is to sign all attendance sheets at the event. No supporting documents are needed. The amount of the contribution will be determined by the EU unit cost calculation guidelines, which are based on the distance from the participant's place of work to the seminar location and will not take account of the participant's actual travel and accommodation costs.
4. Travel costs from outside Germany: participants can calculate the contribution to which they will be entitled on the European Commission website (<https://era-comm.eu/go/calculator>). The distance should be calculated from their place of work to the seminar location.

For those travelling within Germany, the contribution for travel is fixed at €64 (for a distance between 50km and 400km). Please note that no contribution will be paid for travel under 50km. For more information, please consult p.10 on <https://era-comm.eu/go/unit-cost-decision-travel>.
5. Accommodation costs: international participants and national participants travelling more than 50km one-way will receive a fixed contribution of €119 per night for up to three nights' accommodation. For more information, please consult p.13 on <https://era-comm.eu/go/unit-cost-decision-travel>.
6. Successful applicants will be sent the relevant claim form and information on how to obtain payment of the contribution to their expenses. Please note that no payment is possible if the registered participant cancels their participation for any reason.

Other services

7. Beverages consumed during the event, three lunches and two joint dinners are offered by ERA. No per diems will be offered. Participants will receive seminar documentation.

Participation

8. Participation at the whole seminar is required and participants' presence will be recorded.
9. A list of participants including each participant's address will be made available to all participants unless ERA receives written objection from the participant no later than one week prior to the beginning of the event.
10. The participant will be asked to give permission for their address and other relevant information to be stored in ERA's database in order to provide information about future ERA events, publications and/or other developments in the participant's area of interest.
11. A certificate of attendance will be distributed electronically after the end of the seminar.
